Dear Residents and Interested Parties,

The meeting this month was moved to 8 a.m. on Wednesday, October 17. The agenda is attached for your convenience.

With elections rapidly approaching, this information may be helpful. Twelve (12) Constitutional amendments are on the ballot, down from 13 (#8 was removed regarding school board term limits and duties). There is a sample ballot for Town residents and description of the amendments on our website and also attached.

- Turtle season is nearly finished. The nest count in Indian River County stands at 5753 loggerhead, 233 green, and 46 leatherback! One turtle was noted as laying eggs this week, so they won't hatch until sometime around December. This page on the County website has interesting Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

Thank you for your continued interest in the affairs of this local government. Your attendance is always welcome at the meetings.

Respectfully yours,

Laura
