Dear Residents and Interested Parties,

You are likely aware that Hurricane Matthew appears to be coming towards our area later this week. We will have updates on the website, which lists several resources to check on our area or other areas if you are interested.

Please take precautionary measures at this time, including securing any outdoor items. Everyone is encouraged to closely monitor this storm.

A letter from FPL is attached for those who have electric service provided by them. For City of Vero Beach utilities, this is from their website:

UTILITIES ISSUES

To report power outages, tree trimming, service issues or water and sewer problems, please call: (772) 978-5000.

Note that our Postal Center will be closed on Columbus Day, October 10, but all other Town Hall and Public Safety Department offices will be open.

We also received information from the Tax Collector's Office that they will be closed on Monday, October 10th, and they asked us to share that with you.

Thank you, and please stay safe!

Sincerely yours,

Laura Aldrich, MMC
